This new role has been developed on the heels of Lonely Planet unveiling its Top 25 Places to Visit in the World for 2026, where Tipperary, Ireland is among the global highlights, earning a coveted spot praised for its exceptional hiking, rich history, and vibrant culinary scene. Two dining venues based at the luxurious five-star Cashel Palace—Mikey Ryan's and Bishop's Buttery—have also been recognized in the feature, adding to the county's culinary prestige. Jorg "Joe" Mille, Local Experiences Curator at Cashel Palace shares, "My goal is to help guests discover the richness of Tipperary and the wider region through our signature excursions in a way that feels personal, relaxed and true to the place. Whether spending time at the Rock of Cashel, meeting a local producer or hearing the stories behind a particular place, the aim is that one leaves with fond memories, a stronger sense of Tipperary, and the feeling that they have been warmly welcomed into Ireland.
